2009 was a year of transition of leadership from the local church level to the Conference and General level. Where there is a transition of leadership in the body of Christ, it is a time for honoring those who have led and focusing on God's mind for the future. I believe God's mind for the future of the North Carolina Conference is to plant new churches, revive struggling churches, and embrace churches who have no covering that share our mission and doctrinal distinctive.

I am convinced that God is calling all His children to get it together for the sake of souls and His kingdom just before lift off. May God help us to do it in such a way that we touch more people than ever before with the gospel of Jesus Christ. As churches age, they tend to be content to be around people they already know. God is calling on us to reach out to those we do not know and that do not know us. He doesn't want us to shy away from the unfamiliar. Lord Jesus, help us to keep influencing people throughout this season of our ministry for heaven and your church in Jesus' name. Amen.

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE
APPRECIATION REPORT
SATURDAY, AUGUST 8, 2009

TODAY IN THIS PLACE, AT THIS TIME, WE RECOGNIZE AND CELEBRATE BEAUTIFUL PEOPLE! The Bible says in:

ROMANS 10:13-15 (KJV)

For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.
14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher?
15 and how shall they preach, except they be sent? As it is written, how beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

Paul shows that there must be messengers of the gospel who have credentials from God in order for men and women to be saved! TODAY WE RECOGNIZE THESE PRECIOUS BROTHERS AND SISTER IN CHRIST ARE INDEED MESSENGERS OF THE GOSPEL AND WHO HAVE CREDENTIALS FROM GOD AND WHOSE FEET HAVE TRAVELED AROUND OUR STATE, NATION AND WORLD PROCLAIMING "GOOD NEWS"!

I have spoken in revivals, seminars, campmeetings, baccalaureates, commencements, etc. in eleven IPHC Conferences, on three of our college campuses in the USA and in thirteen other countries. I have been honored to speak in revival meetings in 149 North Carolina Conferences churches; some of them multiples of times.

REVEREND ELIZABETH S. ROGERS

Rev. Elizabeth S. Rogers was born March 5, 1942 in Georgia. She has one son, William Michael Rogers and two precious grandchildren – a grandson and a granddaughter, both of whom are teenagers.

Sister Rogers attended Jordan Vocational High School. Following her conversion in 1978, the Lord led her into a teaching ministry. She received her B. A. and M.A.

degrees from Valdosta State College and began a doctoral program at the University of Georgia. However, the Lord soon moved her to Louisiana.

Elizabeth worked at Jimmy Swaggart Ministries from 1985 to 1991. Where she taught two years in their Family Christian Academy high school. The next four years she served as an Assistant Professor of English in the Bible College. During those years, she was able to attend Jimmy Swaggart Theological Seminary in addition to her teaching duties. While working at JSM, Elizabeth answered the Lord's call not only to preach His Word, but also to serve as a missionary with the IPHC

She joined the New Life Worship Center Pentecostal Holiness Church in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, and became a Licensed Minister in the Mid-South Conference in June of 1990. She served on the pastoral staff of New Life, while assisting the Conference Superintendent and others in planting a new church in Denham Springs, Louisiana.

Toward the end of 1990, Elizabeth met with the World Missions Board and was approved as a career missionary. In July of 1991, she received her ministerial ordination and was also ordained as a missionary in August of that same year. Sister Rogers moved to North Carolina and joined the North Carolina Conference in May 1992, where she finished her itineration and arrived in Johannesburg, South Africa, in February 1993. She was 50 years old at the time and had never been out of the United States. However, as soon as she placed her feet on African sol, the Lord instantly gave her a great love for Africa and its people, and that love has never waned.

For the first seven years of her missionary service, Elizabeth was based in South Africa. From there, she along with two colleagues, traveled each year into six Afican countries to teach in the ADVANCE Ministerial and Leadership Training Program. In addition to her work in ADVANCE, Elizabeth (in 1973) was asked to begin a W.I.N (World Intercessions Network) Program in Southern Africa. Elizabeth and her missionary colleague Althea Meyer co-founded the "W.I.N.-Aftica Kids Net". Their desire was to allow the children also to become prayer warriors for the world. Elizabeth served as the W.I.N Director for Africa for ten years. In 2000, Rev. Meyer and Rev. Rogers were asked to move to the small Central African country of Malawi to help re-establish and re-open our Bible school; which had been closed for a numbers of years. In June of 2001, Guthrie Bible Training Center opened its doors to the first class of students. Rev. Rogers served as director of Guthrie Bible Training Center for 8 years. At the time she left, the student body was once again at capacity; and there was a waiting list of over 30 people, hoping to be admitted. After 15 years in Africa, Rev. Rogers encountered a health problem and was unable to remain on the field.

In May of 2008, Elizabeth retired from active overseas missionary service, and recently the NC Conference Board approved her superannuation as well—effective the end of June, 2009. Elizabeth currently resides in Godwin, NC, where she is being "recycled" and eagerly awaiting her next assignment from the Lord.

Sister Rogers says, "I believe I would have to describe my ministry thus far as a marvelous adventure in learning to know Jesus personally, in learning to love Him, to truest Him, to worship Him , and to serve Him with my whole heart. Moreover, I will be eternally grateful for so many wonderful opportunities to help make Him kown, both in America and in seven African countries halfway around the world. And now, my prayer is that 'I may finish my course with joy and the ministry I have received of the Lord Jesus—to testify the gospel of God's grace'. (Acts 20:24b)

REVEREND MANUEL ANTONIO REYES

AUGUST 22, 1954 – JANUARY 29, 2009

On Saturday, January 31, 2009, the celebration service was heldfor Pastor Manuel Reyes at The Mitchell Funeral Home in Greenville, North Carolina. Pastor Reyes had crossed over to be with the Lord on Thursday, January 29th.

Manuel Reyes was a man of God. He left us early! He had been the founding pastor of the John 3:16 Church (Hispanic) in Roanoke Rapids, North Carolina. Since his health was not good, he had recently turned the leadership of the church over to his wife, Reverend Mrs. Esther Reyes.

Brother Reyes always had a smile and a good word. He was totally supportive to the work of God and the Conference. He was so well respected that he was chosen as the District Director of Evangelism/World Missions for the North Hispanic District.

He is survived by his wife, Esther; Daughter, Christiana Buck of Williamston and son Marion Reyes of Roanoke Rapids. He will be missed. Lord give us more men like Pastor Manuel Reyes.

JAMES "PECK" BULLARD

NOVEMBER 8, 1927 – JUNE 16, 2009

Brother James Bullard was known to most of us as "Peck". He always said that one day he would grow up and become a "bushel". For forty-six years, he was married to the lovely Reverend Carrie Bullard. She preceded him in death on June 12, 1995. He and Sister Carrie were blessed with three lovely supportive children: Saundra, Ricky and Angel.

Carrie and James Bullard were saved after they were married. In 1968 Carrie Bullard felt called to preach. She received her Mission Worker's License in 1968 and was licensed by the North Carolina Conference in 1991 and was ordained in 1992.

This couple was greatly used of the Lord. The Boardman church grew under the leadership of Sister Bullard. Many souls came to know the Lord. She was a lady with a radiant smile, fervent spirit, and powerful anointing. "Peck" was right by her side. He supported her in the ministry. Where you saw one you saw the other. They were known not only in the International Pentecostal Holiness Church world but in their entire community. Their live were an inspiration to all.

Sister Bullard was highly successful in part because of the support of her loving husband and Family. Every lady preacher needs a husband like Peck. Every preacher needs a spouse like James Bullard.

ALICE NICHOLS SATTERIELD

MARCH 26, 1920 – FEBRUARY 21, 2009

Alice Satterfield was born in Hancock County, Tennessee on March 26, 1920 to the late Joe and Ida Kinsler Nichols. On November 22, 1942, she married the love of her life, Reverend Walter B. Satterfield. She was a homemaker and the wife of this Pentecostal Holiness Minister for almost sixty-seven years.

Together, she and brother Satterfield pastored thirty-eight years. They pastored the Following churches: Caraleigh, in Raleigh; Jones Grove, Lamm's Grove, Pikes Crossroads, Smithfield, Shiloh Church near Falcon; and completed their pastoral ministry at the Albritton Church near Kinston. Their longest pastorate was the Shiloh Church for nearly nineteen years.

In addition to pastoring, the Satterfield served three years as an evangelist in the then Western North Carolina Conference. They were officially retired in July, 2000.

Sister Alice's celebration service was held at The First Church in Goldsboro. Tuesday, February 25th at 2:00 p.m. Reverend Jim Whitfield and Bishop Chris Thompson officiated. The body was laid to rest at the Wayne Memorial Park.

Those who knew her knew about her five loves in life. She loved God, her husband/family, her church, her fishing (she always caught the big one!) and her love for traveling. She was always known as a faithful Christian and strict tither.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by her children, Lena S. Graham and Husband Herb of Chiefland, Florida, Jerry W. Satterfield and wife, Elaine of Mooresville. Nancy S. Fields and her husband, Glenn of LaGrange, and Bridgette S. Daniels and her husband, Foy of Dudley. She had seven grandchildren, seventeen great grandchildren and two step-grandchildren. Her family and friends are certainly missing her.

MRS. EMMA SPENCER SIMPKINS

DECEASED SEPTEMBER 19, 2008

Emma Spencer Simpkins, 89 of Wilson heard God's call to "Come up Higher." September 19, 2008 at Elizabeth House in Flat Rock, North Carolina. Emma was the youngest daughter of the late James H. and Eliza B. Wahab, Her sisters, Melvina Williams and Muriel Newman, and her husbands Reverend T. Macon Spencer and Ed Simpkins preceded her in death. Mrs. Emma was married to Macon Spencer for 42 years and served God faithfully as she labored with him in numerous pastorates in eastern North Carolina. A well-loved preacher's wife, she was well known for her deep faith, warm wit, gentle spirit and good biscuits. Her sweet, loving spirit touched the lives of many people and she will be greatly missed.

Funeral services were held at 7:00 P.M. Monday, September 22, at Joyner's Funeral Home in Wilson. A graveside service was held at 2:00 P.M. Tuesday at Soule Cemetery near Swanquarter, North Carolina.

MRS. ANNIE MAE TODD

OCTOBER 28, 1915 TO APRIL 1, 2009

Ms Annie Mae was born into the home of Beulah and James Clarence Floyd on October 28, 1915 in Boardman, North Carolina. She attended and graduated from high school in Evergreen, NC.

Ms. Annie Mae became the wife of a great preacher and Pastor T. O. Todd on September 14, 1935. They were married almost 48 years before the passing of Mr. Todd on August 15, 1983. From the time they married until early 1976, she served as a pastor's wife and a great pastor's wife she was. She was very supportive of her pastor husband. She chose her lot of ministry to be a pastor's wife and a mother of their three children: Barbara, Thurman and Brenda.

Everyone who knew Annie Mae Todd loved her. She was an encourager and always had a good word. The older she got the more she smiled.

After the death of her husband, she made her spiritual home at The First Church in Goldsboro. Together Brother and Sister Todd served twenty-one churches. Reverend Todd also served twenty-one years on the Conference Board. He was Assistant Superintendent for two years. She was a wonderful supporter of the conference work and also the local church ministries. This fine lady will be greatly missed.

NORTH CAROLINA WOMEN'S MINISTRIES
MINUTES OF 2009 CONVENTION

The North Carolina Women's Ministries met for the Sixty-Fifth Annual Convention on Saturday, June 6, 2009 at the New Culbreth Memorial Tabernacle in Falcon, North Carolina. The Convention theme was "Shaped to Serve!"

Registration began at 8:00 a.m. in the foyer of the Tabernacle with Mrs. Marjorie Teachey as Registrar, assisted by the North Carolina Women's Ministries District Directors.

Local Women's Ministries Groups and other Conference Ministries, had "show and sell" displays in a room adjacent to the auditorium.

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS CHURCH

"Yet, O Lord, You are our Father, we are the clay; You are the potter; we are the works of your hands" (Isaiah 64:8)

Shaped to Serve in Praise & Worship...

Musical Prelude began at 8:30 a.m. by Mr. Errett Marshburn, Musical Director of Kinston First P.H. Church, Kinston, NC.

North Carolina Conference First Lady, Mrs. Betty Thompson, brought us a devotion from Psalms 139 & Psalms 143: 1-10. Her remarks reminded us that God has "shaped" us and knows all about us, therefore, we can come to Him in prayer and He will hear and answer our prayers. Mrs. Thompson concluded the devotion with prayer.

The Kinston Praise Team led us into a season of worship, as we sang together "No Other Name," "Here I Am To Worship," and "I Will Love You."

Our hearts were blessed as the Praise Team sang,"Use Me", a song from the Kinston First CD.

Bishop D. Chris Thompson brought greetings to the women of the North Carolina Conference. He informed us that he has a new granddaughter and he may be a little proud.

He expressed thanks to all the Women of the North Carolina Conference for all that they do. He also gave thanks to Director Patsy Deese and the NCWM Board for their leadership. He says, "God is using women, children, teens, Hispanics, and African Americans in North Carolina to build His kingdom." He also gave us good news about the North Carolina Conference. He stated that the NC Conference has received a pledge from an individual to pay for the renovation on the Octagon Tabernacle. PRAISE GOD!! The estimated cost is $25,000.00. He also stated that the new mattresses in the dorm rooms are half paid for.

Everyone rejoiced when he reported that twenty people received the Holy Spirit at the Pentecostal Celebration on May 31, 2009.

North Carolina Women's Ministries Director, Mrs. Patsy Deese gave thanks to Bishop Thompson, North Carolina Conference Leadership Team, and the Conference Office Staff for their support of Women's Ministries.

Benevolence:
Marjorie Teachey expressed appreciation to the women for all the hard work that they do for Falcon Children's Home, for ATAM and New Life Adoption Center. She stated that the Children's Home now has sixty-five children and is equipped to take in mothers with new born babies, who wish to keep their babies instead of giving them up for adoption.

She reported that through the WM supported Harvest Train, Falcon Children's Home received $109,641.91 in cash and $37,990.97 in commodities. ATAM received $1,785.70.

Leigh Ann Pearcee spoke to the convention about New Life Adoption Agency, and how they are working together with ATAM to save babies. She also expressed thanks to the women of the NC Conference for their support.

Education:
Darnell Nelms gave thanks to all the churches for their participation in Feast of Ingathering. Because of the faithfulness of the NCWM women and the local churches, the Feast of Ingathering Offering was $62,407.74. This was presented to Emmanuel College, Holmes College of the Bible, Southwestern College, and Pacific Coast Bible College in the fall.

Mrs. Nelms presented a video of the Feast if Ingathering at Emmanuel College and at Holmes Bible College, which included the dedication of the new building at Holmes.

NCWM Director Patsy Deese, assisted by Darnell Nelms, awarded scholarships to the following students: Joshua C. Callicut, Spencer T. Hubbard, Jonathan Mills, William Justin Morris, & Holley Ann Roberson. These scholarship totaled $1,450.00.

Rev. Beulah Sturkie gave Emmanuel College applications to each local Director and asked them to pray over them and ask God who to give them to. God will bring who He wants to Emmanuel College.

Girls' Ministries:
NCWM Director Patsy Deese introduced girls Ministries Coordinator, Lydia Mills, and the Girls Ministries Leadership Team. Director Deese complimented the team for the great job they are doing in Girls Ministries. She then presented each of them with a gift from NCWM.

Happy Hearts:
Happy Hearts Coordinator, Rev. Blanche Pollard, reported that all is well with "Happy Hearts." She gave appreciation to Mrs. Janice Lucas and Mrs. Juanita Russell for their assistance in the Clinton area, to Mrs. Myrtle Winstead in the Greenville area and to Mrs. Mary Belle Johnson, & Mrs. Margaret Potter in the Smithfield area. She also reported that Happy Hearts is still "Shaped to Serve" as they make and fill approximately 1000 Christmas Stockings to send to Pittsburg, and to New York each year for under privileged children.

Missions:
Terry Boyette expressed thanks to all the ladies for their generosity in missions giving. She reported that $16,,040.74 has been given to Agnes Robinson Christmas Missions. Additionally, the local WM groups have supported other mission's projects with $11,016.11.

Director Deese stated that the NC Women's Ministries has excelled in giving to the Zambia "Sewing Machine" Project. By the end of 2008, the women of the NC Conference had given $3,435.63. At the NCWM Retreat in March, 2009 we received an additional $4,377.27.

Director Deese was able to travel to Zambia in January 2009 and see this project "in action."

Intercession & Sharing Sisters:
Janice Marshburn talked to us about the Greek word "Koinonia," which means "fellowship". She stated that through the Sharing Sisters program, we could have that fellowship that each of us need. She also talked to us about the importance of praying one for another. She reminded us that someone took the message to Jesus about Lazarus being sick. With that illustration, she showed us that we need to take one another's needs to the Lord. Janice gave thanks to God for all those who have birthed these programs that are so important today.

NCWM Director's Report:
"Then the word of the Lord came to me; O house of Israel, can I not do with you as the potter does? Declares the Lord. Like clay in the hand of the potter, so are you in my hand, O house of Israel." (Jeremiah 18-5-6)

Director Deese chose not to read the entire written report, but spoke to us from her heart about her duties and responsibilities as NCWM Director. She shared that she is thrilled to be in this place of service at this season of her life.

She has traveled over 5500 miles for Women's Ministries. She has held workshops, planning sessions and training seminars. She has participated in WM Days, Sharing Sister Programs and local WM meetings.

She expressed thanks to the RDC personnel and the NC Conference Board, Bishop Thompson and his wife Betty, and the NCWM prayer team, her home church, Maranatha, and her Pastor, Matthew Smith and his wife Minda.

She especially thanked her husband "Mr. Henry" who helps her to be able to do all that she does. She is very thankful for her daughter, her son in law and two beautiful grandchildren!

Shaped to serve in appreciation & generosity...

Director Deese reported that at the General Conference in July, Mrs. Jewelle Stewart, who has graciously served as our General WM Director for the past eight years, will not be seeking re-election. Director Deese gave the women an opportunity to show their appreciation to Executive Director Stewart for her years of service. An offering of $336.19 was received.

Shaped to serve in his Word...

NCWM Director Patsy Deese introduced our Convention Speaker, Rev. Beulah Sturkie. Rev. Sturkie currently serves on the General WM Board as Southeastern Zone Representative. The mother of three and the grandmother of nine, she was married 49 years to the late Albert E. Sturkie, and worked alongside him in their business ventures. Adopted daughter of early PH ministers, Rev. & Mrs. J. L. Wall, Mrs. Sturkie was thrust into church ministry as an adolescent and went on to serve her local church in many areas of ministry, even as a full-time employee at one point. Rev. Sturkie graduated from Emmanuel College and Columbia College and earned her Master's Degree in Education from the University of South Carolina. She taught many years in public & private schools in south Carolina, She was the first Director for IPHC ministry to girls. Helping to develop the Girl's Auxiliary program and served as its General Director for sixteen years. She has also served two previous terms as a member of the General WM Board. She resides in West Columbia, South Carolina , and maintains a second home in Franklin Springs, GA, where she serves as official liaison between Emmanuel College and Women's Ministries.

Mrs. Tracey Marshburn prepared our hearts to hear God's word as she sang, "Miracles Still Happen".

Rev. Sturkie began by talking to us about how God has shaped us from eternity to the present time and how He has been shaping us to serve Him and to fulfill His plan for Us! She referred to Isaiah 58 and talked about God as the Potter and our bodies as the clay in His hands. She encouraged us to be what God wants us to be.

At the conclusion of her message, she invited those with special needs to come to the alter for special prayer that we might be "Shaped to Serve".

Respectfully Submitted,

Marjorie Teachey, NCWM Secretary/Treasurer

The beautiful floral arrangement was provided by the Wilson First P. H. Church Women's Ministries in memory of Mrs. Blanche Howell. Mrs. Howell died on December 30, 2008 at the age of ninety-eight.

NORTH CAROLINA WOMEN'S MINISTRIES
2008-2009 DIRECTOR'S REPORT

"Then the word of the Lord came to me; O house of Israel, can I not do with you as the potter does? Declares the Lord. Like clay in the hand of the potter, so are you in my hand, O house of Israel." (Jeremiah 18:5-6)

Our theme for this NCWM Convention is "Shaped to Serve". He is the potter and we are the clay. It is wonderful how God can take each one of us and mold us and shape us the way He wants us. If you have ever watched someone with clay create a piece of pottery, you noticed how he looks for the imperfections and then he works the clay until it is like he wants it to be. That is the way the Lord shapes us to do His work. He sees what we can't, but through the process, we have to allow Him to shape us. We cannot do it on our own. Thank you for allowing the Lord to shape you for ministry.

I continue to be excited about what the Lord is doing through Women's Ministries. I am honored to serve as your Conference Women's Ministries Director. The last seven years have been a wonderful adventure and I thank you for allowing me the privilege of worshipping and serving with you. The Lord continues to open doors of opportunity and I am so thrilled to be at this place of service in this season of my life. Women's Ministries is a great ministry and I want Him to shape and mold me to be used for His glory.

Since our convention last year, I have traveled 5,517 miles across the North Carolina Conference. You have allowed me to be a part of your WM Day observances, Sharing Sister programs, and your local meetings. I have held workshops, and training sessions, planned and executed our Leadership Seminar, the NCWM Retreat, local Director's Council, District Director's training, and participated in district rallies. I have also participated in the Bishop's Advisory Council. On the General level, serving as the Northeastern Board member, I contribute quarterly articles for the Potpourri packets that are sent to the Conference WM Directors.

Thank you for helping to equip our young men and women for Christian life and ministry by supporting our church schools. Your contributions to Feast of Ingathering, including matching funds, were $62,407.74. Our goal was $75,000. These funds were designated to Emmanuel College, Southwestern College, Pacific Coast Bible College and Holmes Bible College.

You gave $16,576.21 toward Christmas Missions to bless our missionaries with Christmas gifts. Additionally, you supported other mission's projects in the amount of $11,016.11.

Falcon Children's Home was the recipient of $109,641.91 in cash and $37,990.98 in commodities from the North Carolina Conference through the WM supported Harvest Train. You gave $1,785.70 to the Alternative to Abortion Ministry (ATAM).

Thank you for your continued support of the Zambia "Sewing Machine" Project. Funds received through December 2008 of $3,435.63 have been sent to Zambia from the NC Conference Women's Ministries. At the NCWM Retreat this year, we received an additional $4,377.27. Our goal is to help provide 450 "foot pedaled" sewing machines by 2010 to the WM Conferences in Zambia. It was an awesome experience to travel to Zambia in January to lead the Zambian women in leadership training as well as to visit one of the Sewing schools. We west to be a blessing but they blessed us. God is Shaping to Serve all around the world.

Girl's Ministries continues to be strong, vital arm of Women' Ministries. Under the leadership of LYDIA MILLS and the leadership team, CRYSTAL GRANT, DEBRA COLLINS AND WANDA OATES, these young women are allowing the Lord to shape them to serve in this area of ministry.

They continue to build the Kingdom by setting a goal to reach every young girl in churches across the North Carolina Conference. We are blessed and appreciate each of them for all their hard work and dedication.

Under the leadership of BLANCHE POLLARD and assisted by MARJORIE TEACHEY, & MARGARET POTTER, the HAPPY HEARTS are going as strong as ever. These women continue to do an excellent job of allowing the Lord to shape them for service by continuing to plan and promote the Happy Hearts meetings and activities. We appreciate the ladies that help plan each program Janice Lucas, Juanita Russell, Myrtle Winstead, Mary Belle Johnson and Phyllis Harrell. Thank you for doing such a great job!

THE PAST PRESIDENT'S CLUB chaired by DOLLIE DAVENPORT is a great support group. Dollie, along with CLARA WILLIAMS, JEAN WILLIAMS, SUE PARKER, FAYE LEGGETT, MARY BELLE JOHNSON AND LINDA M. THOMAS for years has allowed the Lord to shape them for ministry. They have been faithful and supportive of Women's Ministries. Their combined years of wisdom have been a great asset to the North Carolina Conference.

I cannot tell you how much I appreciate NCWM Board Members, JANICE, MARJORIE, DARNELL AND TERRY ANN. Their special gifts enhance the work of Women's Ministries. Together we are making a difference! Thank you for allowing the Lord to shape you to minister and to serve the women of this Conference.

NCWM DISTRICT DIRECTORS are a blessing from the Lord. They continue to help build His Kingdom by serving in this area of ministry. They are our wheels of communication between Conference programs, activities and the local church. They serve as registrars and helpers at Conference functions. They promote Women's Ministries on the local level by organizing rallies, leadership meetings and keeping in touch with local directors. A very special thank you to ROSE ALLIGOOD, DEANNA BARNEY, SANDRA BRITT, CAROL DAVIS, TERRI HODGE, JUDY JONES, YVONNE JONES, BARBARA MYNES, PATSY PAYNE, JACKIE THOMPSON and BETTY WATSON.

Our NCWM HISTORIAN, DOROTHY BOYETTE, continues to serve as our official photographer and archives expert. God has given her a wonderful talent and we appreciate her dependability and faithfulness. Thank you for allowing the Lord to use you to bless the North Carolina Women's Ministries. You are loved and appreciated.

Thank you to the RDC and the NC Conference Board for you continued love and support. We appreciate your hard work and dedication and the way you always do it with a servant's heart.

NC Conference BISHOP CHRIS THOMPSON helps us fulfill the Conference vision for the future of Women's Ministries with his encouragement and support. We appreciate his leadership and continued prayers. Thank you Brother Chris! We are blessed.

We appreciate our First Lady, BETTY THOMPSON, as she serves as Conference Director of the Minister's Wives Fellowship.

To our faithful PRAYER TEAM, we are so thankful that you continue to pray for us. We have felt your prayers more than you know. Thank you for continuing to pray for the NCWM Board and the work of Women's Ministries at home and around the world. There is power in prayer!

To my home church, Maranatha and my Pastor, Matthew W. Smith and his wife, Minda, thank you for supporting this ministry and me. You are a blessing.

"Mr. Henry" enables me to serve you. The Lord multiplies the time and Henry helps me finish deadlines or complete a project. The Lord has done a powerful work in my husband and I appreciate him more than he will ever know. He sees me when I'm at my "wits end" and he encourages me to slow down and take a breath. I thank the Lord for my husband. He really is great!

To each of you may I say thank you for all you do on the local level. You are the instrument that God is using to meet the needs in your home, church and community. Thank you for your continued support of the many facets of Women's Ministries and may you continue to be a blessing! Remember, Together we are making a difference!

In His Amazing Love,

Patsy C. Deese
